

Craft Meets Music

Get into the groove!

An Alleweireldt meets Evelin Kasikov Exhibition of New Work

Dates: 14 - 28 May 2010 inclusive
Open 12 – 6pm (closed Mondays) www.craftcentral.org.uk

Venue: Craft Central, 33-35 St John's Square, London EC1M 4DS

An Alleweireldt

Evelin Kasikov

Got a pile of old vinyl records gathering dust? Ever inventive and resourceful, the two designers in the Craft Meets Music exhibition tackle their own vinyl legacy using it as a source of inspiration and a resource for new craft works.

An Alleweireldt shows new work combining dissected vinyl records with precious metals and stones; this stunning jewellery collection includes necklaces inlaid with diamonds and rings with vinyl segments set into gold - musical memories are no longer playable but have become elegantly wearable!

Evelin Kasikov dives into her classic album collection and uses her unique four colour cross stitch technique to illustrate fragments of famous album covers. Often as evocative as the music enclosed, Kasikov plays with our notions of familiarity and recognition yet reminds us how, like fragments of music, moments pass and only remnants of memories remain.
